experience in green buildings; and/or (iii) experience in sustainable energy lending Other information: If you are interested in this position please send your CV in EU format under the heading "Training FE Expert (PF4EE)". When sending your application please include an indication of your desired remuneration (day-	Project title:	"Support Facility under (PF4EE) Private Facility for Energy Efficiency"
Eligible nationalities: Start of project: August 2015 Assignment duration: 300 working days 01/07/2015 The overall objective of the present TA is to contribute to: (i) make energy efficiency lending a more sustainable activity within the selected FI, incentivising therefore private commercial banks to address the energy efficiency sector as a distinct market segment with dedicated lending products, and (ii) increase the capacity of the FI to implement and monitor EE lending in line with the PF4EE Instrument. Qualifications required: Qualifications required: Qualifications required: Qualification and skills Education at least up to Master's Degree (preferably in Business Administration) or equivalent in a relevant field for the assignment (e.g. human resources, marketing, finance/banking, economics, engineering etc.) Demonstrated inclination and skill to utilise innovative approaches to training and communication Strong interpersonal skills, including the ability to build relationships across teams and to work with various projects stakeholders Fluent spoken and written English or (and) French and potentially other EU 28 language(s) General professional experience A minimum of five (5) years' experience in training and project management is required Experience in organising courses on Energy Efficiency themes and in project planning and management Experience developing and producing training materials Experience developing and producing training materials Experience developing and producing training materials (e.g. Newsletters, etc.) Specific professional experience At least two projects with substantial responsibility for developing training programmes in EE related fields At least two projects with substantial responsibility for developing training programmes in EE related fields At least two projects with substantial responsibility for developing training programmes in EE related fields At least two projects with substantial responsibility for developing training programmes in EE related f	Position:	Training EE Expert
Start of project: August 2015 Assignment duration: 300 working days 01/07/2015 Objective of the project: (i) make energy efficiency lending a more sustainable activity within the selected FI, incentivising therefore private commercial banks to address the energy efficiency sector as a distinct market segment with dedicated lending products, and (ii) increase the capacity of the FI to implement and monitor EE lending in line with the PF4EE Instrument. Qualifications required: Outlifications and skills Education at least up to Master's Degree (preferably in Business Administration) or equivalent in a relevant field for the assignment (e.g. human resources, marketing, finance/banking, economics, engineering etc.) Demonstrated inclination and skill to utilise innovative approaches to training and communication Strong interpersonal skills, including the ability to build relationships across teams and to work with various projects stakeholders Fluent spoken and written English or (and) French and potentially other EU 28 language(s) General professional experience A minimum of five (5) years' experience in training and project management is required Experience developing and producing training materials Experience developing and producing training materials Experience developing communication/marketing materials (e.g. Newsletters, etc.) Specific professional experience At least two projects with substantial responsibility for developing training programmes in EE related fields At least two sets of training materials or computer-generated material as outputs of previous projects worked on Experience in producing communication materials demonstrated Good knowledge of the legislative requirements in EU with respect to EE, environmental protection, product safety/quality Good knowledge and understanding of the technical aspects of Energy Efficiency The following will be considered an advantage: (i) background in EE investments in SMEs; (ii) experience in green buildings; and/or (iii) experience in	Location:	EU 28
Assignment duration: Deadline: Ol/07/2015 Objective of the project: The overall objective of the present TA is to contribute to: (i) make energy efficiency lending a more sustainable activity within the selected FI, incentivising therefore private commercial banks to address the energy efficiency sector as a distinct market segment with dedicated lending products, and (ii) increase the capacity of the FI to implement and monitor EE lending in line with the PF4EE Instrument. Qualifications required: Qualifications and skills • Education at least up to Master's Degree (preferably in Business Administration) or equivalent in a relevant field for the assignment (e.g. human resources, marketing, finance/banking, economics, engineering etc.) • Demonstrated inclination and skill to utilise innovative approaches to training and communication • Strong interpersonal skills, including the ability to build relationships across teams and to work with various projects stakeholders • Fluent spoken and written English or (and) French and potentially other EU 28 language(s) General professional experience • A minimum of five (5) years' experience in training and project management is required • Experience in organising courses on Energy Efficiency themes and in project planning and management • Experience developing and producing training materials • Experience in developing communication/marketing materials (e.g. Newsletters, etc.) Specific professional experience • At least two projects with substantial responsibility for developing training programmes in EE related fields • At least two projects with substantial responsibility for developing training programmes in EE related fields • At least two projects with substantial responsibility for developing training programmes in EE related fields • At least two projects with substantial responsibility for developing training programmes in EE related fields • At least two projects with substantial responsibility for developing training programmes in EE related	Eligible nationalities:	All nationalities
Deadline: O1/07/2015 Objective of the project: The overall objective of the present TA is to contribute to: (i) make energy efficiency lending a more sustainable activity within the selected FI, incentivising therefore private commercial banks to address the energy efficiency sector as a distinct market segment with dedicated lending products, and (ii) increase the capacity of the FI to implement and monitor EE lending in line with the PF4EE Instrument. Qualifications required: Qualifications and skills Education at least up to Master's Degree (preferably in Business Administration) or equivalent in a relevant field for the assignment (e.g. human resources, marketing, finance/banking, economics, engineering etc.) Demonstrated inclination and skill to utilise innovative approaches to training and communication Strong interpersonal skills, including the ability to build relationships across teams and to work with various projects stakeholders Fluent spoken and written English or (and) French and potentially other EU 28 language(s) General professional experience A minimum of five (5) years' experience in training and project management is required Experience in organising courses on Energy Efficiency themes and in project planning and management Experience in developing and producing training materials Experience in developing communication/marketing materials (e.g. Newsletters, etc.) Specific professional experience At least two projects with substantial responsibility for developing training programmes in EE related fields At least two sets of training materials or computer-generated material as outputs of previous projects worked on Experience in producing communication materials demonstrated Good knowledge of the legislative requirements in EU with respect to EE, enteronmental protection, product safety/quality Good knowledge and understanding of the technical aspects of Energy Efficiency The following will be considered an advantage: (i) background in EE inyestments in SMEs; (ii) experienc	Start of project:	August 2015
Deadline: Objective of the project: The overall objective of the present TA is to contribute to: (i) make energy efficiency lending a more sustainable activity within the selected FI, incentivising therefore private commercial banks to address the energy efficiency sector as a distinct market segment with dedicated lending products, and (ii) increase the capacity of the FI to implement and monitor EE lending in line with the PF4EE Instrument. Qualifications required: Qualifications and skills • Education at least up to Master's Degree (preferably in Business Administration) or equivalent in a relevant field for the assignment (e.g. human resources, marketing, finance/banking, economics, engineering etc.) • Demonstrated inclination and skill to utilise innovative approaches to training and communication • Strong interpersonal skills, including the ability to build relationships across teams and to work with various projects stakeholders • Fluent spoken and written English or (and) French and potentially other EU 28 language(s) General professional experience • A minimum of five (5) years' experience in training and project management is required • Experience in organising courses on Energy Efficiency themes and in project planning and management • Experience in developing and producing training materials • Experience in developing communication/marketing materials (e.g. Newsletters, etc.) Specific professional experience • At least two projects with substantial responsibility for developing training programmes in EE related fields • At least two projects with substantial responsibility for developing training programmes in EE related fields • At least two sets of training materials or computer-generated material as outputs of previous projects worked on • Experience in producing communication materials demonstrated • Good knowledge of the legislative requirements in EU with respect to EE, entironmental protection, product safety/quality • Good knowledge and understanding of the technical aspe	Assignment duration:	300 working days
Objective of the project: (i) make energy efficiency lending a more sustainable activity within the selected FI, incentivising therefore private commercial banks to address the energy efficiency sector as a distinct market segment with dedicated lending products, and (ii) increase the capacity of the FI to implement and monitor EE lending in line with the PF4EE Instrument. Qualifications required: Qualifications and skills Education at least up to Master's Degree (preferably in Business Administration) or equivalent in a relevant field for the assignment (e.g. human resources, marketing, finance/banking, economics, engineering etc.) Demonstrated inclination and skill to utilise innovative approaches to training and communication Strong interpersonal skills, including the ability to build relationships across teams and to work with various projects stakeholders Fluent spoken and written English or (and) French and potentially other EU 28 language(s) General professional experience A minimum of five (5) years' experience in training and project management is required Experience in organising courses on Energy Efficiency themes and in project planning and management Experience developing and producing training materials Experience developing and producing training materials Experience developing communication/marketing materials (e.g. Newsletters, etc.) Specific professional experience At least two projects with substantial responsibility for developing training programmes in EE related fields At least two sets of training materials or computer-generated material as outputs of previous projects worked on Experience in producing communication materials demonstrated Good knowledge of the legislative requirements in EU with respect to EE, environmental protection, product safety/quality Good knowledge and understanding of the technical aspects of Energy Efficiency The following will be considered an advantage: (i) background in EE investments in SMEs; (ii) experience in green buildings; and/or (ii	Deadline:
Instrument. Qualifications required: Dualifications and skills Education at least up to Master's Degree (preferably in Business Administration) or equivalent in a relevant field for the assignment (e.g. human resources, marketing, finance/banking, economics, engineering etc.) Demonstrated inclination and skill to utilise innovative approaches to training and communication Strong interpersonal skills, including the ability to build relationships across teams and to work with various projects stakeholders Fluent spoken and written English or (and) French and potentially other EU 28 language(s) General professional experience A minimum of five (5) years' experience in training and project management is required Experience in organising courses on Energy Efficiency themes and in project planning and management Experience developing and producing training materials Experience in developing communication/marketing materials (e.g. Newsletters, etc.) Specific professional experience At least two projects with substantial responsibility for developing training programmes in EE related fields At least two sets of training materials or computer-generated material as outputs of previous projects worked on Experience in producing communication materials demonstrated Good knowledge of the legislative requirements in EU with respect to EE, environmental protection, product safety/quality Good knowledge and understanding of the technical aspects of Energy Efficiency The following will be considered an advantage: (i) background in EE investments in SMEs; (ii) experience in green buildings; and/or (iii) experience in sustainable energy lending Other information: If you are interested in this position please send your CV in EU format under the heading "Training EE Expert (PP4EE)". When sending your application please include an indication of your desired remugnation (day-rate). Please also make sure that you include one or more telephone numbers. Only selected candidates will be contacted.	Objective of the project:	(i) make energy efficiency lending a more sustainable activity within the selected FI, incentivising therefore private commercial banks to address the energy efficiency sector as a
Education at least up to Master's Degree (preferably in Business Administration) or equivalent in a relevant field for the assignment (e.g. human resources, marketing, finance/banking, economics, engineering etc.) Demonstrated inclination and skill to utilise innovative approaches to training and communication Strong interpersonal skills, including the ability to build relationships across teams and to work with various projects stakeholders Fluent spoken and written English or (and) French and potentially other EU 28 language(s) General professional experience A minimum of five (5) years' experience in training and project management is required Experience in organising courses on Energy Efficiency themes and in project planning and management Experience developing and producing training materials Experience in developing communication/marketing materials (e.g. Newsletters, etc.) Specific professional experience At least two projects with substantial responsibility for developing training programmes in EE related fields At least two sets of training materials or computer-generated material as outputs of previous projects worked on Experience in producing communication materials demonstrated Good knowledge of the legislative requirements in EU with respect to EE, environmental protection, product safety/quality Good knowledge and understanding of the technical aspects of Energy Efficiency The following will be considered an advantage: (i) background in EE investments in SMEs; (ii) experience in green buildings; and/or (iii) experience in sustainable energy lending Other information: Other information: Other information:
Other information: If you are interested in this position please send your CV in EU format under the heading "Training EE Expert (PF4EE)". When sending your application please include an indication of your desired remuneration (dayrate). Please also make sure that you include one or more telephone numbers. Only selected candidates will be contacted.	Qualifications required:	 Education at least up to Master's Degree (preferably in Business Administration) or equivalent in a relevant field for the assignment (e.g. human resources, marketing, finance/banking, economics, engineering etc.) Demonstrated inclination and skill to utilise innovative approaches to training and communication Strong interpersonal skills, including the ability to build relationships across teams and to work with various projects stakeholders Fluent spoken and written English or (and) French and potentially other EU 28 language(s) General professional experience A minimum of five (5) years' experience in training and project management is required Experience in organising courses on Energy Efficiency themes and in project planning and management Experience developing and producing training materials Experience in developing communication/marketing materials (e.g. Newsletters, etc.) Specific professional experience At least two projects with substantial responsibility for developing training programmes in EE related fields At least two sets of training materials or computer-generated material as outputs of previous projects worked on Experience in producing communication materials demonstrated Good knowledge of the legislative requirements in EU with respect to EE, environmental protection, product safety/quality Good knowledge and understanding of the technical aspects of Energy Efficiency The following will be considered an advantage: (i) background in EE investments in SMEs; (ii)
Contact: lot2@ntu.eu	Other information:	If you are interested in this position please send your CV in EU format under the heading "Training EE Expert (PF4EE)". When sending your application please include an indication of your desired remuneration (dayrate). Please also make sure that you include one or more telephone numbers. Only selected candidates will
	Contact:	lot2@ntu.eu