

Project title:	Mid-term Review of the Support to Nigeria's Electoral Cycle 2011 – 2015 (FED 2011/022-729)
Position:	Team Leader in international politics
Location:	Nigeria
Eligible nationalities:	All nationalities
Start of project:	24/03/2014
Assignment duration:	25 wd
Deadline:	24/02/2014
Objective	Overall objective The overall objective of the study is to provide the EU and other partners with an assessment of the project's performance in terms of relevance, efficiency, effectiveness and sustainability of the support provided to INEC and key stakeholders and its impact on elections. Specific objective/s The specific objectives are to ensure the relevance of the program, the program design and implementation, validity of the assumptions, efficiency of the program implementation, the means and cost, impact and alternatives and recommendations.
Qualifications required:	Qualification and skills <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Master Degree in Political Science, Law, Development Studies or related social science fields • Fluency in English, verbal and written communication skills and the ability to write reports in a clear and concise manner • Knowledge/experience in Nigeria and/or West Africa or similar countries is an advantage General professional experience <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • At least 12 years of professional experience at international level (worked in at least two countries) some of which should have been acquired in a developing country Specific professional experience <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Experience in monitoring election related projects and/or implementation of activities including the use of gender based tools for project monitoring and implementation • Experience in monitoring and evaluation of large development projects in complex political environments • Knowledge in key areas related to democratic governance including political parties, the media, civil society, and advocacy/education • Experience of capacity development in electoral support activities, such as civic/voter education, voter registration, and mobilization for inclusive participation • Experience in the planning and management of the voter registration or IT component of an electronic voter registration exercise or equivalent operation in complex political environments is an asset • Familiarity with international standards and methods regarding elections planning and administration • Proven field research and report writing skills
Other information:	If you are interested in this position please send your CV in EU format under the heading "Nigeria & Team Leader in international politics". When sending your application please include an indication of your desired remuneration (day-rate). Please also make sure that you include one or more telephone numbers. Only selected candidates will be contacted.
Contact:	lot7@ntu.eu