

Project title:	Building Resilience to Climate Change in Papua New Guinea
Position:	Climate Change Financing Specialist
Location:	Papua New Guinea
Eligible nationalities:	All nationalities
Start of project:	11 April 2018
Assignment duration:	4 person-months
Deadline for the applications:	05/01/2018
Objective of the project:	The objective of this project is to establish the enabling framework to strengthen the design, construction, operation, and maintenance of selected ports/wharves/jetties and associated infrastructure in order to improve the resilience of vulnerable social and economic support systems of isolated island communities to climate change impacts while climate proofing of existing critical infrastructure.
Qualifications required:	Qualification and Experience: The Climate Change Financing Specialist preferably has: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • an academic background in financial management or economics in natural resources, environment, or related sectors with tertiary qualifications from a recognized institution; • At least 10 years of relevant experience in climate change financing work for multilateral banks or international or regional development agencies in developing countries in the Asia-Pacific region; • S/he will work with the Team Leader in determining financing needs to manage risks associated with ports infrastructure, and develop appropriate climate change risk financing mechanisms (including insurance, and financing plans to climate proof or implement site specific risk management plans) for ports infrastructure.
Other information:	If you are interested in this position, please send your CV under the heading “Building Resilience to Climate Change in Papua New Guinea” When sending your application please include an indication of your desired remuneration (month-rate). Please also make sure that you include one or more telephone numbers. Only selected candidates will be contacted.
Contact:	hr@ntu.eu