

of the coastal municipalities of Inhambane and Maxixe by providing coastal protection measure such as sea walls, groins and mangrove reforestation, and improvements to the existin drainage systems  The project contributes to improve the negative effects of climate change and extrem weather conditions such as flooding, salt water intrusion and erosion in the coastal municipalities of Inhambane and Maxixe  the Programme shall assist the municipalities in enhancing their capacities in coastal and urba planning (taking into account environmental and climate aspects), financial and contract management, as well as procurement, operation and maintenance, in order to be able the provide services more sustainably and safely in the future and to enable economic development. By doing this, the coastal municipalities shall become strengthened in their role as service providers for its urban and rural population.  Qualifications required:  Qualifications and skills:  Must have Master's degree in civil/hydraulic/coastal engineering and 10 or more years of project relevant professional experience and project managment;  Excellent communication and networking skills and be fluent in the English and Portuguese language  Excellent knowledge of relevant computer programmes  General professional experience:  Working experience in various developing countries, particularly Sub-Saharan Africa, and in Portuguese-speaking countries;  Working experience in Mozambique would be considered an asset;  Specific professional experience:  Experience in coastal protection works including groins, mangrove protection and reforestation  Experience in coastal protection works including groins, mangrove protection and reforestation  Experience in procurement, implementation of infrastructure projects (planning, tendering, sit supervision, ESHS, FIDIC contract (project cost/time/quality/claim) management, as well a O&M)  Other information:  If you are interested in this position, please send your CV under the heading "Coastal Cities as Sustainable E
Decation:   Mozambique (Inhambane and Maxixe municipality)	Project title:	KfW-MAEFP for "Coastal Cities as Sustainable Economic Hubs"; REF: 505387
Start of project:   February 2021	Position:	Deputy Team Leader/ Design Engineer
Start of project:   February 2021	Location:	Mozambique (Inhambane and Maxixe municipality)
Project duration:  Assignment duration:  7 working man-months  23/11/2020  Objective and purpose of the project:  The overall objective of the Programme is to improve the economic and general living condition of the coastal municipalities of inhambane and Maxixe by providing coastal protection measure such as sea walls, groins and mangrove reforestation, and improvements to the existin drainage systems  The project contributes to improve the negative effects of climate change and extrem weather conditions such as flooding, salt water intrusion and erosion in the coast municipalities of Inhambane and Maxixe  the Programme shall assist the municipalities in enhancing their capacities in coastal and urbate planning (taking into account environmental and climate aspects), financial and contrate management, as well as procurement, operation and maintenance, in order to be able to provide services more sustainably and safely in the future and to enable economic development. By doing this, the coastal municipalities shall become strengthened in their role as service providers for its urban and rural population.  Qualifications required:  Qualifications required:  Qualifications and skills:  Must have Master's degree in civil/hydraulic/coastal engineering and 10 or more years of project relevant professional experience and project management;  Excellent knowledge of relevant computer programmes  General professional experience:  Working experience in worious developing countries, particularly Sub-Saharan Africa, and in Portuguese-speaking countries;  Working experience in Mozambique would be considered an asset;  Specific professional experience:  Experience in coastal protection works including groins, mangrove protection and reforestation  Experience in procurement, implementation of infrastructure projects (planning, tendering, sit supervision, ESHS, FIDIC contract (project cost/time/quality/claim) management, as well a O&M)  Other information:  If you are interested in this position, please send your CV under the h	Eligible nationalities:	Mozambican
Assignment duration:   23/11/2020	Start of project:	February 2021
Deadline:   23/11/2020
Objective and purpose of the project:  The overall objective of the Programme is to improve the economic and general living condition of the coastal municipalities of Inhambane and Maxixe by providing coastal protection measure such as sea walls, groins and mangrove reforestation, and improvements to the existin drainage systems  The project contributes to improve the negative effects of climate change and extrem weather conditions such as flooding, salt water intrusion and erosion in the coastal municipalities of Inhambane and Maxixe  the Programme shall assist the municipalities in enhancing their capacities in coastal and urba planning (taking into account environmental and climate aspects), financial and contrat management, as well as procurement, operation and maintenance, in order to be able to provide services more sustainably and safely in the future and to enable economic development. By doing this, the coastal municipalities shall become strengthened in their role as service providers for its urban and rural population.  Qualifications required:  Qualifications required:  Qualifications and skills:  Must have Master's degree in civil/hydraulic/coastal engineering and 10 or more years of project relevant professional experience and project managment;  Excellent communication and networking skills and be fluent in the English and Portuguese language  Excellent knowledge of relevant computer programmes  General professional experience:  Working experience in various developing countries, particularly Sub-Saharan Africa, and in Portuguese-speaking countries;  Working experience in Mozambique would be considered an asset;  Specific professional experience:  Experience in coastal protection works including groins, mangrove protection and reforestation  Experiences in the field of geographic information systems, databases, etc.  Experience in procurement, implementation of infrastructure projects (planning, tendering, sit supervision, ESHS, FIDIC contract (project cost/time/quality/claim) management, as well
of the coastal municipalities of inhambane and Maxixe by providing coastal protection measure such as sea walls, groins and mangrove reforestation, and improvements to the existin drainage systems  The project contributes to improve the negative effects of climate change and extrem weather conditions such as flooding, salt water intrusion and erosion in the coastal municipalities of Inhambane and Maxixe  the Programme shall assist the municipalities in enhancing their capacities in coastal and urba planning (taking into account environmental and climate aspects), financial and contract management, as well as procurement, operation and maintenance, in order to be able the provide services more sustainably and safely in the future and to enable economic development. By doing this, the coastal municipalities shall become strengthened in their role as service providers for its urban and rural population.  Qualifications required:  Qualifications and skills:  Must have Master's degree in civil/hydraulic/coastal engineering and 10 or more years of project relevant professional experience and project management;  Excellent communication and networking skills and be fluent in the English and Portuguese language  Excellent knowledge of relevant computer programmes  General professional experience:  Working experience in various developing countries, particularly Sub-Saharan Africa, and in Portuguese-speaking countries;  Working experience in Mozambique would be considered an asset;  Specific professional experience:  Experience in coastal protection works including groins, mangrove protection and reforestation  Experiences in the field of geographic information systems, databases, etc.  Experience in procurement, implementation of infrastructure projects (planning, tendering, sit supervision, ESHS, FIDIC contract (project cost/time/quality/claim) management, as well a O&M)  Other information:  If you are interested in this position, please send your CV under the heading "Coastal Cities as Sustainable Economic Hubs" and		23/11/2020
drainage systems  The project contributes to improve the negative effects of climate change and extrem weather conditions such as flooding, salt water intrusion and erosion in the coasts municipalities of Inhambane and Maxixe  the Programme shall assist the municipalities in enhancing their capacities in coastal and urba planning (taking into account environmental and climate aspects), financial and contrat management, as well as procurement, operation and maintenance, in order to be able the provide services more sustainably and safely in the future and to enable economic development. By doing this, the coastal municipalities shall become strengthened in their role as service providers for its urban and rural population.  Qualifications required:  Qualifications and skills:  Must have Master's degree in civil/hydraulic/coastal engineering and 10 or more years of project relevant professional experience and project managment;  Excellent communication and networking skills and be fluent in the English and Portuguese language  Excellent knowledge of relevant computer programmes  General professional experience:  Working experience in various developing countries, particularly Sub-Saharan Africa, and in Portuguese-speaking countries;  Working experience in Mozambique would be considered an asset;  Specific professional experience:  Experience in coastal protection works including groins, mangrove protection and reforestation  Experience in coastal protection works including groins, mangrove protection and reforestation  Experience in procurement, implementation of infrastructure projects (planning, tendering, sit supervision, ESHs, FIDIC contract (project cost/time/quality/claim) management, as well a O&M)  Other information:  If you are interested in this position, please send your CV under the heading "Coastal Cities as Sustainable Economic Hubs" and address it to Mr. Sohib Ider. When sending your application please include an indication of your desired remuneration (fee per working day). Please also make sure t		- The overall objective of the Programme is to improve the economic and general living conditions of the coastal municipalities of Inhambane and Maxixe by providing coastal protection measures such as sea walls, groins and mangrove reforestation , and improvements to the existing weather conditions such as flooding, salt water intrusion and erosion in the coasts municipalities of Inhambane and Maxixe  the Programme shall assist the municipalities in enhancing their capacities in coastal and urba planning (taking into account environmental and climate aspects), financial and contrat management, as well as procurement, operation and maintenance, in order to be able to provide services more sustainably and safely in the future and to enable economic development. By doing this, the coastal municipalities shall become strengthened in their role as service providers for its urban and rural population.  Qualifications required:  Qualifications and skills:  Must have Master's degree in civil/hydraulic/coastal engineering and 10 or more years of project relevant professional experience and project management;  Excellent communication and networking skills and be fluent in the English and Portuguese language  Excellent knowledge of relevant computer programmes  General professional experience:  Working experience in various developing countries, particularly Sub-Saharan Africa, and in Portuguese-speaking countries;  Working experience in Nozambique would be considered an asset;  Specific professional experience:  Experience in coastal protection works including groins, mangrove protection and reforestation  Experiences in the field of geographic information systems, databases, etc.  Experience in procurement, implementation of infrastructure projects (planning, tendering, sit supervision, ESHS, FIDIC contract (project cost/time/quality/claim) management, as well a plant information:  Uther information:  If you are interested in this position, please send your CV under the heading "Coastal Cities as Sustainable Economic Hubs" and address it to Mr. Sohib Ider. When sending your application please include an indication of your desired remuneration (fee per working day). Please also make sure that you include one or more telephone numbers. Only selected candidates will be contacted.		drainage systems planning (taking into account environmental and climate aspects), financial and contract management, as well as procurement, operation and maintenance, in order to be able t provide services more sustainably and safely in the future and to enable economic development. By doing this, the coastal municipalities shall become strengthened in their rol as service providers for its urban and rural population.  Qualifications required:  Qualifications and skills:  Must have Master's degree in civil/hydraulic/coastal engineering and 10 or more years of project relevant professional experience and project managment;  Excellent communication and networking skills and be fluent in the English and Portuguese language  Excellent knowledge of relevant computer programmes  General professional experience:  Working experience in various developing countries, particularly Sub-Saharan Africa, and in Portuguese-speaking countries;  Working experience in Mozambique would be considered an asset;  Specific professional experience:  Experience in coastal protection works including groins, mangrove protection and reforestation  Experiences in the field of geographic information systems, databases, etc.  Experience in procurement, implementation of infrastructure projects (planning, tendering, sit supervision, ESHS, FIDIC contract (project cost/time/quality/claim) management, as well a O&M)  Other information:  Other information:  If you are interested in this position, please send your CV under the heading "Coastal Cities as Sustainable Economic Hubs" and address it to Mr. Sohib Ider. When sending your application please include an indication of your desired remuneration (fee per working day). Please also make sure that you include one or more telephone numbers. Only selected candidates will be contacted.		weather conditions such as flooding, salt water intrusion and erosion in the coastal
- Must have Master's degree in civil/hydraulic/coastal engineering and 10 or more years of project relevant professional experience and project managment; - Excellent communication and networking skills and be fluent in the English and Portuguese language - Excellent knowledge of relevant computer programmes  General professional experience: - Working experience in various developing countries, particularly Sub-Saharan Africa, and in Portuguese-speaking countries; - Working experience in Mozambique would be considered an asset;  Specific professional experience: - Experience in coastal protection works including groins, mangrove protection and reforestation - Experiences in the field of geographic information systems, databases, etc Experience in procurement, implementation of infrastructure projects (planning, tendering, sit supervision, ESHS, FIDIC contract (project cost/time/quality/claim) management, as well a O&M)  Other information:  If you are interested in this position, please send your CV under the heading "Coastal Cities as Sustainable Economic Hubs" and address it to Mr. Sohib Ider. When sending your application please include an indication of your desired remuneration (fee per working day). Please also make sure that you include one or more telephone numbers. Only selected candidates will be contacted.		<ul> <li>the Programme shall assist the municipalities in enhancing their capacities in coastal and urban planning (taking into account environmental and climate aspects), financial and contract management, as well as procurement, operation and maintenance, in order to be able to provide services more sustainably and safely in the future and to enable economic development. By doing this, the coastal municipalities shall become strengthened in their role as service providers for its urban and rural population.</li> </ul>
Portuguese-speaking countries;  - Working experience in Mozambique would be considered an asset;  Specific professional experience:  - Experience in coastal protection works including groins, mangrove protection and reforestation  - Experiences in the field of geographic information systems, databases, etc.  - Experience in procurement, implementation of infrastructure projects (planning, tendering, sit supervision, ESHS, FIDIC contract (project cost/time/quality/claim) management, as well a O&M)  Other information:  If you are interested in this position, please send your CV under the heading "Coastal Cities as Sustainable Economic Hubs" and address it to Mr. Sohib Ider. When sending your application please include an indication of your desired remuneration (fee per working day). Please also make sure that you include one or more telephone numbers. Only selected candidates will be contacted.	Qualifications required:	<ul> <li>Must have Master's degree in civil/hydraulic/coastal engineering and 10 or more years of project relevant professional experience and project managment;</li> <li>Excellent communication and networking skills and be fluent in the English and Portuguese language</li> <li>Excellent knowledge of relevant computer programmes</li> <li>General professional experience:</li> </ul>
- Experience in coastal protection works including groins, mangrove protection and reforestation - Experiences in the field of geographic information systems, databases, etc Experience in procurement, implementation of infrastructure projects (planning, tendering, sit supervision, ESHS, FIDIC contract (project cost/time/quality/claim) management, as well a O&M)  Other information:  If you are interested in this position, please send your CV under the heading "Coastal Cities as Sustainable Economic Hubs" and address it to Mr. Sohib Ider. When sending your application please include an indication of your desired remuneration (fee per working day). Please also make sure that you include one or more telephone numbers. Only selected candidates will be contacted.		Portuguese-speaking countries; - Working experience in Mozambique would be considered an asset;
Sustainable Economic Hubs" and address it to Mr. Sohib Ider. When sending your application please include an indication of your desired remuneration (fee per working day). Please also make sure that you include one or more telephone numbers. Only selected candidates will be contacted.		<ul> <li>Experience in coastal protection works including groins, mangrove protection and reforestation</li> <li>Experiences in the field of geographic information systems, databases, etc.</li> <li>Experience in procurement, implementation of infrastructure projects (planning, tendering, site supervision, ESHS, FIDIC contract (project cost/time/quality/claim) management, as well as O&amp;M)</li> </ul>
	Other information:	If you are interested in this position, please send your CV under the heading "Coastal Cities as Sustainable Economic Hubs" and address it to Mr. Sohib Ider. When sending your application please include an indication of your desired remuneration (fee per working day). Please also make sure that you include one or more telephone numbers. Only selected candidates will be contacted.
	Contact:

